Dear Residents,

As I write this, your library is hosting the CSH Civic Association with guest speaker Dr. William Spencer, Suffolk County Legislator, there is a meeting of the CSH Lacrosse Club, students are doing assignments, and people of all ages are using the computers and borrowing material. We see every day that the library means different things to each of you. For some, it’s a quiet refuge from a hectic day; for others, it’s a gathering place to listen, learn, and linger.

On April 9 we held our annual Budget Vote and Trustee Election. Once again, your votes of support tell us we are providing the services you expect. Your confidence in our ability to assist you and your children means so much. I also must thank Trustee Sandra Capek-O’Grady for once again procuring funds from BNY Mellon Wealth Management to fund all the programs on Election Day.

We recently launched our first user survey. Please go to www.cshlibrary.org and complete this very brief survey, so that as we plan our shared tomorrow, it is with the wisdom of knowing we are offering the programs and services you value. The survey will be open until June 30, and one participant who provides an email address will win an eReader purchased by the CSH Library Friends Foundation. If you prefer to take the survey on paper, copies are available at the Circulation Desk, along with a Dropbox to preserve anonymity.

This season there will be many reasons to visit the library. I hope to catch you reading very soon.

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS: YOUR LIFE, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR FUTURE “SUBURBS FOR THE NEXT GENERATION: WHAT DO WE VALUE MOST?”

Tuesday, May 14, 7:00 p.m. at the Northport Public Library

Join Huntington’s eight libraries, Huntington League of Women Voters, and the Leadership Huntington Foundation for a moderated discussion with local experts in the fields of planning, education, and family. Since October 2012, participants have heard from Eric Alexander, Vision LI, Dr. Nathalia Rogers, Dowling College, Jocelyn Wenk, Rauch Foundation, and Craig Turner, Planner, Town of Huntington, among others, about living and thriving in suburban Huntington. This program will focus on families and education. Join the conversation. Play a part in planning your future. For details visit www.facebook.com/CommunityConversationsHuntingtonNY.

A NEW TRADITION

Founded in 2001 in response to an urgent need to build a new library in Cold Spring Harbor, the CSH Library Friends Foundation raised over $4M to offset construction costs and furnish the new building. Residents donated their expertise, and children shared their dreams of what they wanted their library to look like. One generous and community-minded individual also responded by funding an endowment. Proceeds from the endowment enhance the ongoing mission of the public library. The Foundation is extending an invitation to meet for coffee on Thursday, June 13 at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Foundation President, Bess Fuchs. Please join the Foundation Board at this inaugural event. To RSVP, call Susan, Administrative Assistant, at (631) 692-6820, x501 or email styksa@cshlibrary.org.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Thursday, June 20 is SUMMERFEST, our annual Summer Reading Club Kickoff, an event that is generously sponsored by the Library Foundation.

MONTHLY SUSTAINERS

Your Library Foundation is always seeking innovative and convenient ways to raise funds. One important and easy method is through online sustaining memberships. This type of giving program has become the bread and butter of the public radio business, and thus, your foundation is encouraging your participation. By making automatic monthly donations to the library of even a modest amount, you will ensure that your library has the funds to meet future maintenance obligations and provide the enhanced programming your community expects. Monthly donations of $10, $20, $50, or more charged to your credit card will make a big difference. To sign up, visit the Foundation page on the library website, www.cshlibrary.org, and follow the instructions. If you would like more information, call Helen Crosson, Library Director at (631) 692-6820.

LOCAL HISTORY NEWS

In March, our steward of local history and dedicated librarian, Marie Horney, chose to quietly end her decades-long career. She warmly greeted thousands of visitors and likely answered thousands of questions. Her spirited and energetic contributions to the CSH Library community are everlasting and deeply appreciated. Soon, the Local History Room will assume a dual purpose. The Friends Foundation, with funding from monthly sustainer contributions, is funding the construction of locked display cabinets and shelves, enabling the room to become another small meeting room.
