Report of the Library Committee

The Library has had a very successful year being well patronized by those reading in the rooms, and particularly as to the books loaned since May 1st, 1913, the number having amounted to about 3,300, thus showing a wonderful increase since 1912 when the number was 900. I would draw attention to tablet memorial which was referred by Executive Committee to Library Committee with power to proceed with collection of funds and erection of tablet.
